Dear DCAC Ordinary Shareholder

Introduction

Further to the shareholder circular issued on 20 December 2022 (the "Circular"), the DCAC Sponsor Shareholder Class Meeting and Warrant Holding Meetings held on 11 January 2023 and the adjourned EGM and DCAC Ordinary Shareholder Class Meeting held on 18 January 2023 (collectively the "Meetings"), we are pleased to confirm that all Resolutions proposed at the Meetings were passed.

As undertaken in the Circular, the Company is now issuing this Tender Document (referred to in the Circular as the "Repurchase Offer Circular") offering to acquire up to 95 per cent. (95%) of the DCAC Ordinary Shares held by you as at 17:40 (CET) on 10 February 2023 (the "Record Date") (the "Tender Offer"), at a price of £10.789 per DCAC Ordinary Share.

The purchase of DCAC Ordinary Shares pursuant to the Tender Offer will be funded from amounts to be released from the Escrow Account (as described in the Circular) and will be made under the Tender Offer Authority granted by DCAC Ordinary Shareholders pursuant to the Meetings.

This Tender Document contains further details of the Tender Offer, together with details of how DCAC Ordinary Shareholders can tender up to 95% of their DCAC Ordinary Shares at the Record Date for purchase, if they wish to do so.

Description of the Tender Offer

DCAC Ordinary Shareholders may tender any part of up to 95% of their holding of DCAC Ordinary Shares at the Record Date for acquisition by the Company at the Offer Price.

DCAC Ordinary Shareholders cannot make tenders in respect of more than 95% of the DCAC Ordinary Shares they own as at the Record Date. Only whole DCAC Ordinary Shares may be tendered and only whole DCAC Ordinary Shares will be accepted for tender. All DCAC Ordinary Shares acquired in the Tender Offer will be acquired at the same price for cash in Pounds Sterling.

Each DCAC Ordinary Share validly tendered in the Tender Offer will, subject to the terms of the Tender Offer, be acquired at a price of £10.789 per DCAC Ordinary Share.

DCAC Ordinary Shares will not be repurchased pursuant to the Tender Offer to the extent that the aggregate Offer Price payable exceeds £128,500,000.

The Tender Offer is made subject to the terms and conditions set out in Part III of this Tender Document. Further information about the procedure for tendering DCAC Ordinary Shares in the Tender Offer and other important details of the Tender Offer are set out in Part II of this Tender Document.

The general costs and expenses of the Tender Offer will be borne by the Company. The Company will not be responsible for your brokerage fees, cash transfer costs, custody and depositary fees and costs, taxes, duties, other such imposts, advisory fees or other costs for your account.

In addition, as announced by DCAC on 13 January 2023, the Company has today issued a separate circular convening an extraordinary general meeting of the Company at which the Company will seek the approval of DCAC Shareholders by ordinary resolution for the Company to acquire up to 325,000 DCAC Ordinary Shares and accompanying holdings of DCAC Public Warrants (the "Stub Tender Offer Resolutions") (the "Stub Tender Offer Circular"), which Stub Tender Offer Circular sets out the terms on which DCAC Ordinary Shareholders and DCAC Warrant Holders may, following completion of the Tender Offer, tender for repurchase certain DCAC Ordinary Shares and DCAC Public Warrants) (the "Stub Tender Offer").

The Board makes no recommendation to DCAC Ordinary Shareholders as to whether or not they should tender their DCAC Ordinary Shares in the Tender Offer. Whether or not DCAC Ordinary Shareholders decide to tender their DCAC Ordinary Shares will depend, among other factors; on their view of the Company's prospects; and their own individual circumstances, including their tax position.

The Sponsor reserves its position as whether or not to tender part or all of its DCAC Ordinary Shares, depending inter alia on the need to preserve sufficient free float.

In addition, DCAC Ordinary Shareholders should read Part IV of this Tender Document for a discussion of the risks DCAC Ordinary Shareholders should consider in evaluating this Tender Offer and how it may affect them as well as this Tender Document in its entirety.

- (e) to do all such acts and things as shall be necessary or expedient and execute any additional documents deemed by the Company to be desirable, in each case to complete the purchase of the DCAC Ordinary Shares or to perfect any of the authorities expressed to be given under this Tender Document;
- (f) comply with any reasonable requests to supply information to enable the Company and its agents to perform their duties under applicable anti-money laundering, countering of terrorist financing and sanctions regulations.
- (g) if not resident in Guernsey or the Netherlands, he, she or it has fully observed any applicable legal requirements, that the invitation under the Tender Offer may be made to that DCAC Ordinary Shareholder under the laws and regulations of the relevant jurisdiction in which the DCAC Ordinary Shareholder is located and that the DCAC Ordinary Shareholder is entitled to accept the Tender Offer under the laws and regulations of the relevant jurisdiction;
- (h) receipt of a tender through an Admitted Institution constitutes the submission of the DCAC Ordinary Shareholder to the jurisdiction of the courts of Guernsey in relation to all matters arising out of or in connection with the Tender Offer.

8.2 To the extent not prohibited by or ineffective under applicable law, each DCAC Ordinary Shareholder by whom or on whose behalf a tender through an Admitted Institution is given irrevocably agrees to assume liability for, pay and indemnify the Company from and against any and all liabilities, obligations, damages, losses, settlements, judgments, claims, actions, suits, penalties, costs, expenses and other sanctions (civil or criminal) suffered or incurred by either of them as a result of the breach by such DCAC Ordinary Shareholder of any of the undertakings, representations, warranties, or agreements contained in paragraph 8.1 of this Part III.

8.3 A reference above to a DCAC Ordinary Shareholder includes a reference to the person or persons giving a tender through an Admitted Institution. In the event of more than one person giving a tender through an Admitted Institution, the above provisions will apply to them jointly and severally.

9 Tenders through Euroclear Nederland

9.1 Each DCAC Ordinary Shareholder by whom, or on whose behalf, a tender through an Admitted Institution is made irrevocably undertakes, represents, warrants and agrees to and with the Company (so as to bind it, its personal representatives, custodian, sub-custodian, heirs, successors and assigns) on the date that such DCAC Ordinary Shares are tendered up to and including the Final Settlement Date that:

- (a) the tender of any DCAC Ordinary Shares constitutes an acceptance by the holder of the DCAC Ordinary Shares of the terms, conditions and restrictions of the Tender Offer;
- (b) such DCAC Ordinary Shareholder is not over-tendering his/her position by tendering more than 95% of the DCAC Ordinary Shares held by it and will deliver the DCAC Ordinary Shares on the Closing Date;
- (c) such DCAC Ordinary Shareholder has full power and authority to tender, sell and deliver, and has not entered into any other agreement to tender, sell or deliver the DCAC Ordinary Shares stated to have been tendered to any party other than the Company (together with all rights attaching thereto) and, when such DCAC Ordinary Shares are purchased by the Company for cash, the Company acquires such DCAC Ordinary Shares, with full title guarantee and free from all liens, charges, encumbrances, rights of pre-emption or other third party rights of any nature and together with all the rights attaching thereto;
- (d) such DCAC Ordinary Shares are being tendered in compliance with the restrictions set out in this Tender Document and the securities and other applicable laws or regulations of the jurisdiction in which the DCAC Ordinary Shareholder is located or of which it is a resident and no registration, approval or filing with any regulatory authority of such jurisdiction is required in connection with the tendering of such DCAC Ordinary Shares; and
- (e) if requested by the Company or Van Lanschot Kempen, provide the legal name of the beneficial DCAC Ordinary Shareholder wishing to tender.

10 Restricted jurisdictions

- 10.1 The making of the Tender Offer in, or to persons who are citizens or nationals of, or resident in, jurisdictions outside Guernsey or the Netherlands or custodians, nominees or trustees for citizens, nationals or residents of jurisdictions outside Guernsey or the Netherlands may be prohibited or affected by the laws of the relevant jurisdiction. DCAC Ordinary Shareholders who are not resident in Guernsey or the Netherlands should inform themselves about and observe any applicable legal requirements. It is the responsibility of any DCAC Ordinary Shareholder wishing to make a tender to satisfy himself, herself or itself as to the full observance of the laws of the relevant jurisdiction in connection with the Tender Offer, including the obtaining of any governmental, exchange control or other consents which may be required, the compliance with other necessary formalities and the payment of any transfer or other taxes or other requisite payments due in such jurisdiction. Any such DCAC Ordinary Shareholder will be responsible for payment of any such transfer or other taxes or other requisite payments due by whomsoever payable and the Company and any person acting on its behalf shall be fully indemnified and held harmless by such DCAC Ordinary Shareholder for any such transfer or other taxes or other requisite payments such person may be required to pay. No steps have been taken to authorise the extending of the Tender Offer in any territory outside Guernsey or the Netherlands.
- 10.2 The provisions of this paragraph and any other terms of the Tender Offer relating to shareholders outside Guernsey and the Netherlands may be waived, varied or modified as regards specific DCAC Ordinary Shareholders or on a general basis by the Company.
- 10.3 The provisions of this paragraph 10 supersede any terms of the Tender Offer which may be inconsistent with it.
- 10.4 All DCAC Ordinary Shareholders wishing to tender DCAC Ordinary Shares in the Tender Offer should inform themselves about and observe any applicable legal or regulatory requirements. If you are in any doubt about your position, you should consult your professional adviser in the relevant territory.

PART IV – RISK FACTORS

Prior to deciding whether or not to tender DCAC Ordinary Shares under the Tender Offer, DCAC Ordinary Shareholders should carefully consider this Tender Document in its entirety, as well as the section "Risk Factors" in the DCAC IPO Prospectus and the risk factors discussed in the section "Risk Factors" in the Shareholders Circular dated 20 December 2022 (the "Circular").

The risks described below have emerged or changed in light of the Tender Offer. The occurrence of any of the risks below could have a material adverse effect on the Tender Offer and on the value of an investment in DCAC Ordinary Shares.

All of these risk factors and events are contingencies that may or may not occur. A number of these risks described below may occur simultaneously. The order in which these risks are presented is not necessarily an indication of the likelihood of the risks actually materialising, of the potential significance of the risks or of the scope of any potential negative impact to the Tender Offer and the value of an investment in DCAC Ordinary Shares. DCAC Ordinary Shareholders should carefully consider all of the risk factors set out in this Part IV.

Although the Company believes that the risks described below are the material risks concerning the Tender Offer, they are not the only risks relating to the Tender Offer. Other risks, events, facts or circumstances not presently known to the Company or that the Company currently deems to be immaterial could, individually or cumulatively, prove to be important and may have a significant negative impact on the Tender Offer and the value of an investment in DCAC Ordinary Shares.

1. DCAC Ordinary Shareholders can only tender up to 95% of their DCAC Ordinary Shares under the Tender Offer. DCAC Ordinary Shareholders will consequently retain 5% of their DCAC Ordinary Shares.

Under the Tender Offer, DCAC Ordinary Shareholders can only tender up to 95% of their shareholding in the Company. As a result, DCAC Ordinary Shareholders will in any case retain 5% of their DCAC Ordinary Shares and remain DCAC Ordinary Shareholder in the Company for the remainder of their shareholding. Other than through the Stub Tender Offer, which is, at the date of this Tender Document still subject to approval by an extraordinary general meeting of the Company and which is only available for DCAC Ordinary Shareholders who tendered their full entitlement of DCAC Ordinary Shares under this Tender Offer, there is no certainty that DCAC Ordinary Shareholders will be able to sell or otherwise dispose of their Remaining Holding, should they so wish.

2. As the Sponsor may not tender its DCAC Ordinary Shares under the Tender Offer and/or other DCAC Ordinary Shareholders may decide not to tender 95% or some other significant portion of their DCAC Ordinary Shares, DCAC Ordinary Shareholders who tender 95% or some other significant portion of their DCAC Ordinary Shares may experience immediate and substantial dilution of their shareholding in the Company.

The Sponsor may (or may not) tender its DCAC Ordinary Shares under the Tender Offer. In addition, other DCAC Ordinary Shareholders may decide not to tender 95% or some other significant portion of their DCAC Ordinary Shares. As a result, DCAC Ordinary Shareholders who tender 95% or some other significant portion of their DCAC Ordinary Shares may experience an immediate and substantial dilution of their shareholding in the Company, causing the Sponsor and/or such other DCAC Ordinary Shareholders to obtain increased voting power, thereby increasing their respective influence over all matters requiring DCAC Ordinary Shareholder approval and decreasing your influence over matters presented to the DCAC Ordinary Shareholders for approval, including, subject to the Amended Articles, approval of a future business combination.

3. DCAC Ordinary Shareholders who tender their DCAC Ordinary Shares may suffer from reduced value or proceeds in future.

Each DCAC Ordinary Shareholder who tenders or procures the tender of DCAC Ordinary Shares will experience an immediate and substantial dilution of their shareholding in the Company, so that the Sponsor and other DCAC Ordinary Shareholders will obtain an increased proportion of the economic value of the Company. Whilst there is no guarantee of future success, such tendering DCAC Ordinary Shareholder may accordingly suffer reduced overall value compared to those DCAC Ordinary Shareholders who do not tender their DCAC Ordinary Shares.

4. DCAC Ordinary Shareholders cannot withdraw their tender of DCAC Ordinary Shares without the written consent of the Company or once their tender has become unconditional.

Each DCAC Ordinary Shareholder who tenders or procures the tender of DCAC Ordinary Shares will be deemed to have agreed that, in consideration of the Company to process his tender, such DCAC Ordinary Shareholder will not revoke its tender or its DCAC Ordinary Shares without the prior consent of the Company. Once tendered, a DCAC Ordinary Shareholder can therefore not withdraw its tender under the Tender Offer, unless the Company consents to such withdrawal.

5. As of tendering DCAC Ordinary Shares, all such tendered DCAC Ordinary Shares will be locked.

As of tendering DCAC Ordinary Shares, all such tendered DCAC Ordinary Shares will be locked. During this period, DCAC Ordinary Shareholders will not be able to (re)sell, pledge, encumber or otherwise transfer such tendered DCAC Ordinary Shares or any rights related thereto.

6. The Tender Offer is subject to certain conditions and the Board may decide to postpone or terminate the Tender Offer at any time prior to the purchase of DCAC Ordinary Shares under the Tender Offer as a result of which DCAC Ordinary Shareholders may receive the repurchase price of £10.789 per tendered DCAC Ordinary Share at a later point in time or not at all.

The Tender Offer is subject to the conditions that (a) there has been no Material Adverse Change nor Force Majeure Event, (b) the Board being satisfied that the Company has in its control or to its order the aggregate of the Offer Price for all successfully tendered DCAC Ordinary Shares, the aggregate of the Offer Price previously credited to the Escrow Account, (c) the Board continuing to be satisfied that that the Company will, immediately following the purchase of all successfully tendered DCAC Ordinary Shares (as if all DCAC Ordinary Shareholders were to tender for acquisition their full entitlement), satisfy the statutory solvency test prescribed by the Companies (Guernsey) Law 2008 as amended and (d) the Tender Offer is not terminated in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in the Tender Offer Document. The Company may at its sole discretion terminate or postpone the Tender Offer in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in the Tender Offer Document, if the Company (acting through the Directors) considers in its reasonable opinion that (a) it has become unlawful, impractical or inappropriate for the Company to fund the purchase of the DCAC Ordinary Shares without materially harming DCAC Ordinary Shareholders as a whole or (b) the completion of the purchase of the DCAC Ordinary Shares under the Tender Offer would have material adverse fiscal or other consequences (whether by reason of a change in legislation or practice or otherwise) for the Company or its DCAC Ordinary Shareholders taken as a whole if the Tender Offer were to proceed or (c) if the Company will not immediately following the acquisition of the DCAC Ordinary Shares validly tendered in the Tender Offer, continue to satisfy the statutory solvency test under the Companies (Guernsey) Law 2008, as amended. If these conditions are not met or if the Board decides to delay or terminate the Tender Offer prior to the repurchase of DCAC Ordinary Shares under the Tender Offer, DCAC Ordinary Shareholders may receive the repurchase price of £10.789 per tendered DCAC Ordinary Share at a later point in time or not at all.

7. The net consideration received by a DCAC Ordinary Shareholder may be less than £10.789 per DCAC Ordinary Share

The cash consideration of £10.789 per tendered DCAC Ordinary Share does not include costs relating to a Shareholder's broker, bank or other financial intermediary or advisor. Nor is the Company responsible for any taxes, duties or similar imposts suffered by the Shareholder. The net payment per tendered DCAC Ordinary Share received by DCAC Ordinary Shareholders may therefore be lower than the £10.789 repurchase price.

8. The broker, bank or other financial intermediary through which DCAC Ordinary Shares are held may set an earlier deadline for communicating a tender than the Closing Date.

The broker, bank or other financial intermediary through which DCAC Ordinary Shares are held may set an earlier deadline for communicating a tender than the Closing Date and such deadline may differ for each individual broker, bank or other financial intermediary. The Company does not have any knowledge on such deadlines and therefore the DCAC Ordinary Shareholder should consult its broker, bank or other financial intermediary in this regard.

9. Any tenders not made fully in accordance with the instructions as set out in the Tender Document and in a timely manner may be invalid.

Submitting a tender that is not made fully in accordance with the instructions as set out in the Tender Document, may result in an invalid tender and ultimately not being able to tender DCAC Ordinary Shares under the Tender Offer (thereby also not receiving the cash consideration of £10.789 per tendered DCAC Ordinary Share). DCAC Ordinary Shareholders should note that none of Van Lanschot Kempen, Admina, the Company or any other person is or will be obliged to give notice of any defects, irregularities, omissions, delays or non-receipts in tenders of DCAC Ordinary Shareholders, and that none of them will incur any liability for failure to give any such notice.

10. The Tender Offer is a one-time offer by the Company to repurchase up to 95% of your DCAC Ordinary Shares, and following the Tender Offer you will no longer have a repurchase right, other than potentially through the Stub Tender Offer.

The Tender Offer is a one-time offer by the Company to repurchase up to 95% of your DCAC Ordinary Shares. DCAC Ordinary Shareholders should note that the articles of association of the Company no longer provide for a repurchase right and that there is no assurance that the Company will provide for such a repurchase right in the future, other than potentially through the Stub Tender Offer. There is therefore no assurance that DCAC Ordinary Shareholders can have their DCAC Ordinary Shares repurchased by the Company other than through this one-time Tender Offer and the Stub Tender Offer.

11. DCAC Ordinary Shareholders who do not tender their full entitlement of DCAC Ordinary Shares will not be eligible to use the balance of DCAC Ordinary Shares not so tendered to participate in the Stub Tender Offer

The Company intends, through the Stub Tender Offer, to offer DCAC Ordinary Shareholders and DCAC Public Warrant Holders the opportunity to tender for repurchase up to 5% of DCAC Ordinary Shares (that are not the subject of and are not tenders for purchase under this Tender Offer) held as at the Record Date (at all times subject to the Stub Tender Offer being limited to 325,000 DCAC Ordinary Shares in aggregate) and all of their DCAC Public Warrants, provided that should DCAC Ordinary Shareholders and DCAC Warrant Holders decide to tender, DCAC Ordinary Shareholders shall be required to tender their entire holdings of DCAC Public Warrants together with their DCAC Ordinary Shares under the Stub Tender Offer as at the Record Date. DCAC Ordinary Shareholders should note that their decision to offer DCAC Ordinary Shares under this Tender Offer therefore also affects their eligibility to offer DCAC Ordinary Shares under the Stub Tender Offer and that tendering less than their full entitlement of DCAC Ordinary Shares, or nothing at all, will result in their being ineligible to tender such DCAC Ordinary Shares in the Stub Tender Offer.

12. DCAC Ordinary Shareholders who do not tender a significant portion of their DCAC Ordinary Shares may face a significant decrease in net asset value of their shareholding

Following the provision and distribution of cash to meet the Tender Offer, a substantial part of DCAC's then remaining cash will be applied to settle outstanding liabilities, resulting in limited remaining assets and a decreased net asset value per DCAC Ordinary Share. This may in particular affect DCAC Ordinary Shareholders who do not tender a significant portion of their DCAC Ordinary Shares, as they will not receive the repurchase price of £10.789 per DCAC Ordinary Share for DCAC Ordinary Shares that they do not (successfully) tender. If the Company is wound up or liquidated in the future, the decreased net asset value per DCAC Ordinary Share may result in DCAC Ordinary Shareholders receiving substantially less than £10.25 per DCAC Ordinary Share or nothing at all.

13. There is no guarantee that DCAC will be able to satisfy the statutory solvency test following the acquisition of DCAC Ordinary Shares validly tendered in the Tender Offer

Pursuant to section 320 of the Companies (Guernsey) Law, 2008, as amended, the repurchase of DCAC Ordinary Shares pursuant to the Tender Offer would be considered to be a distribution for the purposes of the Companies (Guernsey) Law, 2008 and therefore the Board must comply with section 303 of the Companies (Guernsey) Law, 2008 in respect of making distributions, including ensuring satisfaction of the statutory "solvency test" as defined in section 527 of the Companies (Guernsey) Law, 2008 being (in respect of companies that are not "supervised companies", like DCAC) that DCAC is able to pay its debts as they become due and that the value of DCAC's assets is greater than the value of its liabilities. There is no guarantee that DCAC will, immediately following the acquisition of the DCAC Ordinary Shares validly tendered in the Tender Offer, meet and/or continue to satisfy the statutory solvency test.

14. The repurchase of DCAC Ordinary Shares by the Company may result in taxes being imposed on the Company or on DCAC Ordinary Shareholders.

The repurchase of DCAC Ordinary Shares by the Company may result in taxes, duties or other imposts being imposed on the Company or on DCAC Ordinary Shareholders as at the date of such repurchase or redemption. The Company is not responsible for any taxes, duties or other imposts that are imposed on a DCAC Ordinary Shareholder and the Company does not intend to make any cash distributions to DCAC Ordinary Shareholders to pay any such taxes, duties or other imposts. The materialisation of this risk may adversely affect the post-tax return for certain DCAC Ordinary Shareholders.
